'HOME FROM HOME'

JAZZ AND COMEDY NIGHTS WITH THE SOUTH LONDON JAZZ ORCHESTRA, THE CINEMA MUSEUM, SION JAMES AND OTHER GUESTS

The South London Jazz Orchestra and the Cinema Museum are putting together two spectacular retro nights, in order to raise funds for Doctors of the World.

Come along on 18 May for a short yet powerful performance by members of the orchestra, a screening of the Hollywood classic 'Pete Kelly's Blues', and a discussion about old Hollywood.

The second event on 20 May will include a stunning performance from the orchestra in full swing, fine comedy from Rising Award Winning Comedy Stars of Clapham Comedy Club and a Q&A session with a Doctors of the World volunteer who will answer questions about the frontlines of the refugee crisis. Doors open at 19:00 on both evenings.

Tickets cost £5-20 (plus booking fee). You can buy them on the door or at <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/home-from-home-tickets-33277770708>

Harriet Braine

Funny Women Winner 2016 (Katherine Ryan, Sara Pascoe and Sarah Millican are among the comedians to have been recognised in previous years.)

Cheekykita

I am going to say this from the outset: Cheekykita is the funniest comedian (let alone, God forbid, I should point out comedienne) I have ever seen. Philip Hutchinson Edinburgh Fringe Review

Sion James

"Sion James is a charming MC, effortlessly riffing with the audience" Time Out London
".....Lovably bumbling Welshman....." Amused Moose Comedy London

Eshaan Akbar

WINNER: Piccadilly Comedy Club New Comedian of the Year 2016
"So slick, I could have been watching a Live at the Apollo set" (Bruce Dessau)
